First General Meeting Of Murray Woman's Club Held

The first general meeting of the Murray Woman's Club was held last week at the club house.

Mrs. J. I. Hosick, chairman, presided over the business session and introduced Mrs. Howard Olin, who sang two musical selections, "Walk with the Dawn" and "No Man is an Island". Mrs. Edd Griffin introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Ralph Edgington.

Mrs. Edgington, a very charming speaker, was born in Scotland and lived most of her life in County Kent, England. She came to the United States in 1948 and made her home in Arlington, Kentucky with her American husband. She has been very active in club work since her arrival in this country and now holds the positions of vice governor of the First District and Chairman of the Council of International Clubs for the state.

She spoke on her own country, the British Isles, giving many pertinent facts on the geographical and historical aspects and the system of government.

She also added many personal touches through her poems, playwrights and authors.

She referred to the Council of International Clubs as a gateway to "our greatest need today—peace." "Our greatest inability is to adjust ourselves to living with other people—regardless of our differences in ideas and government. We should study other people, to know their thoughts and feelings," she continued.

Mrs. Edgington urged club members to start correspondence with foreign families and to send clothes, books and other material articles.

At the close of the program, a tea was given in honor of the club members and the guest speaker. The beautifully appointed tea table was covered with a green cloth and the centerpiece was twin arrangements of fall flowers in shades of bronze and gold fall flowers, arranged by the Garden Department. Mrs. J. I. Hosick and Mrs. Leland Owen presided at the tea table and the chairman of all the departments served as hostesses.

Local Farmers Are Named To Committee

Mr. Bouden M. Ford, Murray, route 4, and Mr. Cletus Shelton, Dexter, route 19 are the new members of the Farmers Home Administration county committee for Calloway County, according to information received from the County FHA Supervisor this week.

Mr. Ford's and Mr. Shelton's appointments became effective July 1, 1956. The committee on which they will serve determines the eligibility of local farmers who apply for Farmers Home Administrations loans.

Both Ford and Shelton carry on a general type farming operation in Calloway County and in addition to farming Mr. Ford works as a carpenter part of the time. Shelton was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Rudolph Georgia, Murray, route 2, who resigned to accept other employment. Mr. Ford succeeds Sylvester Paschall, Murray, route 4, whose term expired this year. Each regular member is named for a 3-year term and one appointment expires each year. A member completing his 3-year term cannot succeed himself. At least two of the members must be farmers. The third member of the present FHA committee is Noble H. Cox, Kirksey route 2. This agency makes loans for the purchase of livestock and equipment, feed, seed, fertilizer and other farm operating needs, and also makes loans to buy, improve, or enlarge efficient family-type farms and to construct or repair dwelling and other farm buildings.

A representative of the Farmers Home Administration is at the local ASC office each second and fourth Wednesday from approximately 1:00 p.m. until 3:00 p.m.

Fashions Found In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 18 (AP)—The FBI dropped its investigation today of the disappearance of high fashion originals designed by Pauline Trigere. The exclusive gowns valued at $250,000, which disappeared from Kansas City, Mo., last Wednesday, turned up Monday at Moltan International Airport here. M. P. Chiles, special agent in charge of the FBI office here, said the clothes "apparently had been misdirected in shipment to New Orleans."

Grayson McClure Attend Auto Showing

Mr. and Mrs. Grayson McClure returned Sunday from Chicago, Illinois where they attended the preview showing of the new 1957 Studebaker automobile.

The 1957 Studebaker has a number of refinements and improvements, McClure said, with the front and rear ends changed to some degree.

The basic body style was retained, after undergoing drastic changes last year.

The McClures stayed at the Conrad Hilton Hotel while in Chicago, which is the largest hotel in the world.

While there they met Harold Churchill, the General Manager of Studebaker-Packard Corporation.

Judge Rayburn established bail at $350 for a Calloway Countian, 17, who was charged with assault and battery by another 17-year-old, when they and James Harris, 21, Rt. 1, Hardin were parked near Kentucky Lake, Saturday night.

Harris, recently discharged from the navy, was acquitted but advised to remain in the county. Judge Rayburn announced that a later hearing would be set, pending further investigation.

Mr. and Mrs. Sublett Visit In Murray

Mr. and Mrs. Malcomb Sublett and son have returned to their home in Casper, Wyoming following a short visit with Mrs. Sublett's mother, Mrs. Roy Weatherly.

Mrs. Sublett was called to Owensboro due to the death of Mr. Sublett's brother, James Lee Sublett. He had been Captain of the Fire Department in Owensboro for the past eighteen years. His untimely death followed a heart attack. He was forty-one years of age.

Malcomb Sublett is manager of the Franklin Supply Company in Casper, Wyoming.

Bob Thomas To Demonstrate Arrangements

Bob Thomas, local florist, will be a feature attraction at the opening of the Mid-South Fair. He will give two demonstrations on the arrangements of flowers in two sessions September 27.

Mr. Thomas will demonstrate from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. and from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the Woman's Building. His program is called "Silhouettes of the South Through 100 years."

Thomas' demonstration is part of an elaborate schedule of flower shows for the centennial year of the fair which opens on September 21 and continues through September 29.

Mrs. Edward Toulon, president of the Iris Garden Club and a nationally accredited flower judge, will supervise the entire event. Its theme is One Hundred Years of Flowers in Arrangement, Horticulture and Adornment.

Thomas' picture appeared in the Commercial Appeal September 16 with several of his arrangements.

Home Burns; Cross Burned Night Before

The home of Mary Rowland burned last night about ten minutes after 11:00 o'clock. The house was located on North 16th street, west of the street.

Night before last a cross about six feet high with arms about four feet long was burned in her front yard. Pistol shots were also fired in the vicinity.

It is not known who was responsible for burning the cross. The house has been the scene of numerous complaints in the past and Mary had been charged with maintaining a nuisance.

Police said they did not know if there was any connection between the burning of the cross and the burning of the house. Mary Rowland's husband was shot and killed at this location about one year ago.

Seek Reason For Wreckage Of Huge B-52 Stratofortress

MADERA, Calif., Sept. 18 (AP)—A board of Air Force officers studied the wreckage of a B-52 Stratofortress today in the hope of finding out why the eight-engine jet burst into flames and fell, carrying five men to their deaths.

Two men parachuted to safety shortly before the accident Monday afternoon. They were treated for minor injuries at Castle Air Force Base Hospital, 40 miles from here.

The Air Force identified the survivors as Maj. Benjamin R. Ostlund, 36, of Coos Bay, Ore.; and Capt. William J. Vetter, 38, of Louisville, Ky.

The Air Force withheld the names of the dead until it has notified their next of kin. All the bodies were recovered.

While the Air Force board investigated the crash, Brig. Gen. William Eubanks Jr., commander of the 93rd Bombardment Wing, ordered all B-52 training flights at Castle halted.

The scene of the crash was nine miles east of this central California city and 180 miles southeast of San Francisco.

The plane was apparently flying at less than 3,000 feet, returning to its base at Castle after a training flight. A spokesman said:

"Things must have happened fast. As far as we know, there was no radio contact between the plane and the base before the crash."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitch, whose farmhouse narrowly escaped being hit by the falling plane, were working in a nearby field.

"We heard a loud noise and when we looked up, we saw this large ball of flame heading for the earth," they said. "The plane dug a hole about five to six feet deep about 100 yards from our house."

The plane crashed at 5:45 p.m. EDT. It hurled pieces of wreckage for yards around. One flying fragment set fire to an unoccupied farmhouse belonging to Robert Keough, destroying it in a matter of minutes.

Other fragments destroyed two barns, cut telephone lines between Madera and Fresno, hit a car and bus on busy U.S. Highway 99, and piled up on the Southern Pacific main line tracks, delaying the Oakland-bound San Joaquin daylight for 20 minutes.

A revival meeting will begin Wednesday, September 19 at the Sulphur Springs Methodist Church at New Concord and continue through Friday, September 22nd.

Rev. Joe Hulme will be the evangelist. Services each night at 7:30. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Kenneth Wright Will Arrive Home From Germany Soon

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wright of Murray have been notified that their son, Pfc. Kenneth Wright, left on September 16 for the United States. He has been stationed in Germany for the past year and has been a medical clerk during his tenure of service in the army. He will receive his discharge from the armed forces when he arrives here.

Young Wright was one of 170 Seventh-day Adventist boys who volunteered for experiments conducted by the government in "cold" fever, a fever which is related to Rocky Mountain fever.

He was born in Union Springs, New York on Lake Cayuga where his father was principal of Union Springs Academy.

Most of his childhood was spent in Florida and he completed that phase of his life at Collegedale, Tennessee where his father was head of the Collegedale Academy.

TVA Saved Murrayans $283,000

Consumers served by distributors of TVA power during the 1956 fiscal year paid approximately 95,000,000 less than they would have paid had they purchased the same amount of electricity priced at the average of the rate schedules in effect throughout the country, T.V.A. said today.

This represented an increase of $19,000,000 over the 1955 fiscal year.

TVA said that during the past 17 years (fiscal year 1940-1956 exclusive) the estimated savings to consumers served with TVA power have amounted to $644,000.

Estimated savings in the 1956 fiscal year to users in the four largest cities in the power service area were: Memphis $10,043,000; Chattanooga $9,863,000; Nashville $9,821,000; and Knoxville $6,636,000.

Combined estimated savings of customers of municipally operated systems were $12,666,000, and of cooperatives, $20,847,000. Two privately owned systems purchase TVA power and retail it at TVA resale rates; their customers benefited to the extent of $281,000. Oak Ridge, Tenn., power users would have paid an estimated $836,000 more had they purchased the same quantity at rates prevailing generally throughout the country.

Savings to Murray users amounted to $283,000 in 1955 and the estimated savings in 1956 in Murray amount to $347,000.

The monthly meeting of the Methodist Men's Club will be held tomorrow, September 19, at 8:30 p.m. in the social hall of the church.

Calloway County Judge Waylon Rayburn will be the speaker for this dinner meeting. His subject will be one of interest to everyone, a spokesman said.

It will deal with laws connected with juvenile problems and procedure of handling offenses of a juvenile nature.

Election of officers will also take place at this important meeting. The newly elected officers will take office at the November meeting.

Ore Indicates High Test Results Last Test Awaited

A group of local people are awaiting the results of the latest test on uranium bearing ore which could let them "retire for life."

The group, formed into a corporation, has backed exploration on a desolate plateau in Utah, in search for the ore which produces Uranium 235, the product on which is based the atomic research of today.

The tests already made indicate a uranium ore find which tests higher than the strike which made a multi-millionaire out of a prospector several months ago.

The chain of events was started when Blaine Sykes, son of W. D. Sykes, went on a prospecting tour last year which carried him through the desolate wastes of several western states including Utah and New Mexico.

Sykes became friends with a German prospector known as "old man Skatz," Skatz was apparently satisfied with the good grade of fluorapatite which he was mining and paid little attention to the "streaks" of uranium bearing ore which he brought to the surface.

An Oklahoma firm purchased nine claims next to the seven owned by Skatz, and Sykes purchased several claims next to those of the Oklahoma firm.

In need of more financing, Sykes returned to Murray and formed the corporation, selling 200 shares at $100.00 per share. About forty-five local people entered the venture in the hopes of reaping some gain from the current great need of the uranium bearing ore.

Sykes returned to Utah and purchased more claims and the corporation now has about five hundred acres on the plateau which they can mine.

According to L. D. Miller, one of the stockholders, Skatz sunk a shaft and brought up ore which tested very high. The Oklahoma firm immediately sunk a shaft nearby and also brought up a high bearing ore.

The local group had been mining on the far corner of the claim and immediately they moved to the side of the claim near the Oklahoma claim and sunk their 13th hole. Tests have proven to be high in all the holes but this last one, the results of which they are now awaiting, is expected to be the highest of any yet.

The claim is located about 64 miles from Cedar City, Utah. Miller said that the hole went through sixty-five feet of fluorapatite and through sixty-three feet of the uranium bearing ore.

According to Miller, T. Waldrop, also a stock holder in the corporation who is at the scene of the operation in Utah, placed quite a lot of accent on the figure 13. The 13th hole was begun at 9:13 so it is expected that Waldrop will stick with the figure 13 as long as he can. A telephone call placed here yesterday was through operator 13 also.

The AEC abandoned the area as not having a high enough percentage of uranium to be mined, but since Skatz struck his rich ore and has returned to the area and has great interest in the results.

Pitchblende is considered the highest producer of Uranium 235 and the comment was made by Atomic Energy officials that the Mother Lode of pitchblende might be located within the claim of the local corporation.

If this turns out to be a fact, then the 45 incorporators would literally reap millions from their relatively modest venture of $250,000.

Miller said that the distance between the two holes which brought up high tests of uranium bearing ores are about one-half mile apart. It is not known how wide the ore bearing vein is, but the area is now being "checked board" to determine its width.

The vein is about 140 to 150 feet beneath the surface of the earth. Miller said that he is awaiting a call from T. Waldrop tonight, as it is expected that the results from the last test will be known by that time.

Murray Will Attend Band Festival

Rumsey Taylor, Sr., Princeton, Ky., Band Festival Committee, announced last week the Sixth Annual Western Kentucky Band Festival would be held in Princeton on Saturday, September 29. Taylor said twelve bands had already accepted the invitations to appear in the gala event.

The twelve bands to appear are from high schools in Madisonville, Mayfield, Henderson, Murray, Beaver Dam, Hopkinsville, Bowling Green, T. I. G. County, Dawson Springs, Greenville, Central City, and Princeton. Last year the Mayfield High School Band won first place in the festival judging Henderson was second.

The day's activities will begin at four o'clock in the afternoon. The festival will open with a big parade along Princeton's Main Street. At seven o'clock p.m., at the Butler stadium, the marching and music judging will begin. Judges from the University of Kentucky and Humboldt, Tennessee, have been signed for the festival.

Taylor said the Princeton Kiwanis Club has never made any monetary profit from the presentation of the festival. He added the club actually lost money the first two years and have just about broken even the past three years. He reminded the aim of the festival program was to promote high school bands in Western Kentucky.

The local Kiwanis club furnishes one meal to all band members and their chaperones plus assistance with the transportation costs. All indications point to the most successful Western Kentucky Band Festival ever held. A capacity crowd is expected to see both the parade and stadium performances.

DONKEYS FOR DEMOCRATS
GARDEN GROVE, Calif. — The Garden Grove Democratic Club recently treated children to free animal rides. The animals were donkeys, of course.

East Side Club Has Meeting At Home Of Mrs. Ollie Adair

The East Side Homemakers Club started the year's work with the all day meeting held Tuesday, September 11, at the home of Mrs. Ollie Adair.

An election of officers was held in the morning session. They are Mrs. Adair, president; Mrs. Arlo Sprunger and Mrs. G. B. Jones, major project leaders; Mrs. Wayne Wilson and Mrs. Rollie Kelley, main lesson leaders; Mrs. J. D. Wall, secretary. Other members willingly took minor but no less important offices.

Three names were taken from the roll due to the fact that they had moved away. The most recent was Mrs. George Wilson who was honored with a picnic the latter part of August at which she was presented with a gift from the club members. She and her family have moved to Bowling Green, Ohio. Another member, Mrs. William Bond, moved to Detroit, Mich., earlier in the year, but was back in Murray last week to enroll her daughter, Sharon, at Murray State College.

The lessons this year are varied and promise to be of great interest. "Clothing Guideposts" was presented by Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. Adair. They gave hints of fashion that should help members who sew or buy ready made garments to select clothes
